

Ezekiel Ministry

A Ministry of Hope and Healing

*“Now the word of the Lord came to me saying: Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear; they are a rebellious house.”
Ezekiel 12:1-2*

Jesus will turn your deserts into streams of living water.

*“And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.”
(Revelation 22:1)*

*Ezekiel Ministry
Barry & Faye Wilson
P.O. Box 1119
Pinson, Alabama 35126
205-914-1530
barry@ezekielministry.com*

www.ezekielministry.com

www.photographybybarrywilson.com

March 2009

Ezekiel Ministry

Sharing the Light and Love of God to a Dark World

“Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand. But you, go your way till the end; for you shall rest, and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days.” (Daniel 12:10,13)

It seems it gets harder each month to write this newsletter. I know that Satan is fighting to stop the spread of the gospel and the Word of God. He knows that the end is near and his time is short. As I prayed about what to write this month, God told me that I needed to write about the end times. God has had me reading the prophets and I just cannot get out of these books. God is speaking to all Christians that we must allow God to work in our lives so we will be strong and ready when the time comes.

I am not an expert on the end times but my spirit is telling me that it is near. If we just open our eyes and look around, we can see a world that God is preparing for His return. Sometimes we Christians put our head in the sand and we don't want to know what is going on in the world. In this issue I am running articles that is put out by Prophecy News Watch (www.prophecynewswatch.com). These are news articles that have appeared in other news sources, but these articles are related to the return of Jesus. Jesus tells us that we need to be aware of the signs of the times. My prayer is that you will look at their web site and get on their email list. We all must be aware of the changing world we live in. When we are aware of what is happening in our world, our mission to get the good news of Jesus out becomes more urgent.

“His winnowing fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean out His threshing floor, and gather His wheat into the barn; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.” (Matthew 1:12)

Apostate Christianity

We are told in Revelation 3 of the 7 Churches. The last church or church age is symbolized by the Church of Laodicea. Laodicea means "the rights of the people." Thus, this was a church governed by the will of the people, rather than the will of God. This is the church age from which the Antichrist and the False Prophet will emerge. It is the church age Paul talked about that would not endure sound doctrine, but would gather around them teachers that would say what their itching ears wanted and desired to hear (2 Tim 4:3). This church is described as lukewarm, indifferent, not concerned with right and wrong, or with good and evil. They take a neutral position: one of "live and let live; don't rock the boat; and don't cause waves." They are trying to serve two masters—God and self (or the world).

“Obedience deepens our intimacy with Jesus. If we want to know the Father, we must not only love Him, but also obey Him. Scripture is clear that it is important to know the Father through His Word, and if we want to be part of what the Father is doing and to be able to see where He is moving, then it is clear that we must obey His commands. It's important to not only be biblically literate, but we must also be biblically obedient! (John Wimber)

Bank of England Policymaker Predicts Unprecedented Dollar Collapse

The long-held assumption that US assets - particularly government bonds - are a safe haven will soon be overturned as investors lose their patience with the world's biggest economy, according to Willem Buiter.

Professor Buiter, a former Monetary Policy Committee member who is now at the London School of Economics, said this increasing disenchantment would result in an exodus of foreign cash from the US.

The warning comes despite the dollar having strengthened significantly against other major currencies, including sterling and the euro, after hitting historic lows last year. It will reignite fears about the currency's prospects, as well as sparking fears about the sustainability of President-Elect Barack Obama's mooted plans for a Keynesian-style increase in public spending to pull the US out of recession.

Writing on his blog, Prof Buiter said: "There will, before long (my best guess is between two and five years from now) be a global dumping of US dollar assets, including US government assets. Old habits die hard. The US dollar and US Treasury bills and bonds are still viewed as a safe haven by many. But learning takes place."

He said that the dollar had been kept elevated in recent years by what some called "dark matter" or "American alpha" - an assumption that the US could earn more on its overseas investments than foreign investors could make on their American assets. However, this notion had been gradually dismantled in recent years, before being dealt a fatal blow by the current financial crisis, he said.

He said investors would, rightly, suspect that the US would have to generate major inflation to whittle away its debt and this dollar collapse means that the US has less leeway for major spending plans than politicians realize.

God is wanting to clean up our lives and make everything in our lives pleasing to Him. If we are not strong in our spirits, we will not be able to stand in these last days.

Please pray for us as we try to reach more for Jesus. I feel such an urgency in my spirit. But at the same time I feel Satan telling me that my work for Jesus does not matter that we are not reaching anyone. I know that this is a lie. Just pray for us as we fight this spiritual battle. I feel that I am not doing enough to reach this dark world.

God is dealing with me about changing my web sites and in the next few weeks I will be doing this. The one thing that I will be changing is to put past newsletters on my Ezekiel Ministry web site. We will also be expanding our email ministry. If you are not on our email list, please let us know.

Kissinger: Obama primed to create New World Order

According to Henry Kissinger, the Nobel Peace Prize winner and former secretary of state under President Nixon, conflicts across the globe and an international respect for Barack Obama have created the perfect setting for establishment of "a New World Order."

Kissinger has long been an integral figure in U.S. foreign policy, holding positions in the Nixon, Ford and Reagan administrations. Author of over a dozen books on foreign policy, Kissinger was also named by President Bush as the chairman of the Sept. 11th investigatory commission.

Kissinger made the remark in an interview with CNBC's "Squawk on the Street" hosts Mark Haines and Erin Burnett at the New York Stock Exchange, after Burnett asked him what international conflict would define the Obama administration's foreign policy.

"The president-elect is coming into office at a moment when there is upheaval in many parts of the world simultaneously," Kissinger responded. "You have India, Pakistan; you have the jihadist movement. So he can't really say there is one problem, that it's the most important one. But he can give new impetus to American foreign policy partly because the reception of him is so extraordinary around the world. His task will be to develop an overall strategy for America in this period when, really, a new world order can be created. It's a great opportunity, it isn't just a crisis."

The phrase "New World Order" causes alarm for many Americans, particularly those concerned about an international governing body trumping U.S. sovereignty or those that interpret biblical prophecy to foretell the establishment of a one-world government as key to the rise of the Antichrist. Conspiracy theorists, too, have latched on to the phrase, concerned that powerful financial or government figures are secretly plotting to rule the world.

Kissinger's ties to government and international powers – as well as his use of the phrase – have made him suspect in the eyes of many who are wary of what "new world order" might actually mean.

"There is a need for a new world order," Kissinger told PBS interviewer Charlie Rose last year, "I think that at the end of this administration, with all its turmoil, and at the beginning of the next, we might actually witness the creation of a new order – because people looking in the abyss, even in the Islamic world, have to conclude that at some point, ordered expectations must return under a different system."

As WND reported, Kissinger was also part of last year's super-secret Bilderberg Group, an organization of powerful international elites, including government, business, academic and journalistic representatives, that has convened annually since 1954.

According to sources that have penetrated the high-security meetings, the Bilderberg meetings emphasize a globalist agenda and promote the idea that the notion of national sovereignty is antiquated and regressive. (Daniel 8:23-26)

